"BETTER FAITH, BETTER WORLD," ASSERTS PASTOR

"If we are to work together constructively we must have faith that tomorrow can be brighter than yesterday ever was," Rev. Wallace E. Fisher declared Monday night in a talk given at a meeting of the Rotary Club at the YWCA.

"This belief is absolutely necessary," the pastor of Christ Lutheran Church said, "any alternative view will lead to destruction. A stubborn belief that tomorrow could be better was the reason America was peopled. It was not because the people who came here liked hardship that they made the trip across the Atlantic, it was not because they liked the west that the people began to expand the frontier until our nation extended from coast to coast. It was the belief that by entering a new world they could make tomorrow brighter, possibly not for themselves, but for their children.

A Better Tomorrow. "That strong belief in tomorrow filled Washington and the men who made our nation, and it filled Lincoln, too, and sustained him in the dark days of the Civil War.

"There can be no chance for peace, no chance to stabilize the world unless we have that positive conviction coming forth from all the little places in the world. That is a positive task you as Rotarians can take up yourselves, to extend this conviction that tomorrow can be better.

"To do it we must be willing to start from what we have and work forward from there. There can be no decrying of what went wrong in the past, nor any looking back to what we think is a better day.

"We cannot stand still and expect a new election, or a new leader to come forward, or expect God to work a miracle for us. We must be intelligent enough to work with what we have and take responsibility for our own actions. What is past is gone, it is history. We have only what we have as of today.

One doesn't expect to inherit a perfect business situation or a professional situation that is perfect; so how can we expect a perfect world to be handed to us."

AUXILIARY OF HOSPITAL OPENS BUILDING FUND

Establishment of a Life Membership-Building Fund was voted by the Auxiliary of the Warner Hospital Monday afternoon at its meeting in the board room of the hospital.

The vote came after the report of a committee including Mrs. Frank Kramer, Mrs. LeRoy H. Winebrenner and Mrs. Roy W. Gifford suggested establishment of such a fund after a study of how the auxiliary can best assist in the proposed reconstruction at the hospital.

Appointed last month, the committee reported that from its study of the situation, it recommended that the life membership fund which was begun ten years ago by Mrs. C. H. Hett "be hereafter called the Life Membership and Building Fund." The committee also suggested that substantial amounts be transferred each month from the current checking account to the new fund, and that the new fund be earmarked for future building plans of the hospital.

Start With $500. After the recommendation had been accepted, the auxiliary voted that $500 be transferred from the checking account to the fund, to start the program. Each month hereafter as large an amount as possible will be added from the checking fund to the building fund. At the same time attempts will be made to interest more people in (Continued on Page 4)

Telephone Service Between East And West Berlin And Long Distance Lines Severed By Reds

BERLIN (AP)—The Communists cut telephone communications between East and West Berlin and 17 long distance lines between West Berlin and West Germany today.

Eight telegraph lines also were shut down. Thus far, however, telecommunication lines between West Berlin and West Germany were not affected.

It appeared to be the first blow in the promised Communist reprisals for West Germany's signing of a peace pact with the Western Allies yesterday. West Berlin, 110 miles inside the Soviet zone, feared a renewal of the near-paralyzing Red blockade of 1948-49.

Allied Lines Working

West Berlin telephone officials would not disclose how many land lines they still have open to West Germany but indicated the number is far in excess to the 17 shut down. Also radio telephones, capable of handling about five calls simultaneously, are still functioning.

Here And There News Collected At Random

Charles B. Bender, president of the Gettysburg Retail Merchants Association, has come forth with a suggestion that should relieve some of the congestion which prevails when a number of bus parties come to Gettysburg on the same day.

Mr. Bender suggested that these touring buses be directed to the public parking area in the rear of the Hotel Gettysburg and Majestic Theater and that the Retail Merchants will pay the parking fees.

"This will relieve congestion in Lincoln Square and the business streets, eliminate traffic and accident hazards and provide a larger and safer place for these visitors to unload and load," Mr. Bender said.

"I feel certain that the bus drivers and their passengers will appreciate this gesture of courtesy and hospitality on our part and will welcome an opportunity to park their vehicles out of the congested business area and still be a hundred or so feet from the center of town," he added.

We believe that whatever official action is required to put this suggestion into effect should be taken at once.

On the back page of the official church bulletin, printed by the thousands by the American Baptist Convention and distributed throughout the country for last Sunday's services, appeared the following: "Thousands of white crosses, row on row, remind us of our soldier dead. On Memorial Day we visit the battlefields and the cemeteries to honor the men who laid down their lives in wars in which our country has participated.

"If we go to the great battlefield of Gettysburg, Pa., we shall find many war memorials to brave men of the war between the states. But American Baptists visiting that town find (Continued on Page 7)

Veiled Threat Of Offensive New Angle Of Red Harangue

MUNSAN, Korea (AP)—Communist truce negotiators today made a veiled threat of a Red offensive as Korean armistice talks resumed after a three-day recess—but immediately bogged down over the prisoner of war issue.

The prisoner issue alone blocks an armistice. The Reds demand return of all their captured soldiers. The United Nations Command says not a single captured Red will be forced to return.

North Korean Gen. Nam Il repeated his well-worn charges that the Allies have been slaughtering POWs. He referred to the April 10 riots on Koje Island. Then he declared:

Red Propaganda. "The Korean People's Army and the Chinese People's Volunteers decidedly cannot sit by while seeing their captured fellow combatants being slaughtered by your side at will."

The U.N. spokesman, Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckolls, said Nam Il's statement "could be interpreted" as a threat of stepped-up warfare by Communist troops.

But Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison Jr., senior U.N. delegate, passed off Nam Il's statement as propaganda.

Another plenary session was scheduled for Panmunjom tomorrow at 11 a.m. (9 p.m. tonight EST).

Canada Protests

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—Canadian protests regarding the transfer of Canadian troops to riot-torn Koje Island as guards of Red prisoners of war were answered today by an Eighth Army spokesman.

In Ottawa Monday the government expressed displeasure and concern in a strongly-worded note to the U. S. State Department.

MAJ. W. M. LIPSEY IS NAMED NEW COLLEGE PMST

Major William M. Lipsey, of Tuscaloosa, Ala., has been named as the new professor of military science and tactics at Gettysburg College, it was announced today.

A veteran of Pacific duty, he will begin his duties as head of the ROTC at the college with the opening of the 1952-53 school year.

He succeeds Capt. Cyril B. Spicer Jr., Highland Ave., who has served as PMST at the college for the last three years. Captain Spicer will have the duty during the summer months of establishing a new ROTC at Dickinson College, with the ROTC there to be set up, according to Second Army regulations, in exactly the same fashion as the Gettysburg ROTC is conducted.

Following that duty Capt. Spicer will report to Fort Benning in August to attend the Advanced Infantry Officers Training School.

Major Lipsey entered the army in November, 1941, as a private when called from the University of Alabama where he was a student at the time. After completion of basic training he was sent to Fort Benning's Officer Candidate School from which he received his commission as second lieutenant in 1942. He served with the 96th Infantry Division and later with the 41st in the Pacific

MD. LUTHERAN SYNOD SESSION IS OPENED TODAY

A general increase in membership, contributions and activities was reported today at the opening sessions of the 133rd annual convention of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of the United Lutheran Church in America being held today, Wednesday and Thursday at the Church of the Abiding Presence on the Lutheran Theological Seminary Campus.

Rev. Dr. Elwood S. Falkenstein, Westminster statistician for the synod, reported contributions for all purposes totaled $3,085,107, an increase of $391,067 over the previous year and $989,686 more than the amount received in 1949.

Membership gains were listed as: 1,475 baptisms, 616 confirmed and 438 communicating membership. Total number of persons joining the churches in the synod during the year was 3,927.

The report shows that last year's Vacation Church Schools numbered 72 with 787 staff members and 5,831 pupils. The synod is close to meeting its Church Higher Education Year (CHEY) goal, the reports disclosed. So far the amount raised is $241,820.10, according to the reports presented in the annual year-books of the group. The goal is $275,125. The synod is scheduled to vote to continue the CHEY appeal until the total sought is reached.

The executive committee recommendation that Christ Lutheran Church, Hagerstown, be formally admitted to the synod was received and it was expected that a motion accepting the new church will be passed during the three day session. It was also expected that the synod would follow a recommendation of its committee that the minimum salary for ministers be set at $3,000 per year and parsonage.

GIANTS WHIP DODGERS AND REGAIN LEAD

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer

It's high time Carol (Whitey) Lockman, the New York Giants first baseman, began getting the credit he so richly deserves. The colorless but dependable towhead from Charlotte, N. C., who has made the shift from the outfield to first base with little fanfare but with surprising success, has been the most consistent of all the Giants. He leads the club with a .333 batting mark (second highest in the league), tops the circuit in runs scored and is third in total hits.

It was Bobby Thomson who proved to be the big run-producer last night as the Giants tangled with the Dodgers at the Polo Grounds for the first time since their pennant playoff game last year.

Cubs Blank Cards
The Giants whipped their interborough rivals, 4-2, to take over first by a half game.

It was Lockman who set up Thomson. The 25-year-old first baseman drew a walk in the first inning and rode in ahead of Thomson's homer. He walloped a 400-foot triple in the third and crossed the plate on Thomson's 440-foot fly. Then he iced the game in the fifth with a home run into the right field stands.

The Chicago Cubs blanked the St. Louis Cards, 3-0, to solidify their hold on third place. Bob Rush pitched a six-inning shutout to register his sixth victory, five in a row.

Kiner Gets Fourth
Ralph Kiner slammed a three-run homer, his fourth of the year and his second in two days, to lead the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 6-3 victory over the Cincinnati Reds.

The Red Sox thrashed the New York Yankees, 6-3, for their fourth in a row over the world champions in Fenway Park.

Sid Hudson pitched and batted the Senators to a 5-3 triumph over the Philadelphia Athletics.

Billy Pierce picked up a pair of victories as the Chicago White Sox swept two games from the St. Louis Browns, 10-5 and 6-2. The first game marked the completion of a suspended game.

Rain washed out the Boston Braves and Phillies.

Adcock, sidelined by a knee injury last Thursday, has collected 33 hits, good for 66 total bases, for a remarkable .667 slugging mark to lead the National League. The Redleg outfielder has pounded out four doubles, four triples and seven home runs.

Slugging averages released by the Associated Press Statistical Bureau also revealed that Rosen with five doubles, three triples, 10 home runs and 85 total bases is setting the pace in the American League. Averages include games played Sunday.

To compute a batter's slugging average the total times at bat are divided into the total bases made on all hits.

Hank Sauer, the big gun in the Chicago Cub attack, is giving Adcock a run for National League slugging honors. His average is .603.

Andy Pafko of the Brooklyn Dodgers is the third with .546.

Rosen's teammate, Larry Doby, is the runnerup in the American

Interstate

By The Associated Press

A rookie outfielder's first home run of the year and a veteran hurler's tight pitching was the solution to the first slump of the season for the pace-setting Hagerstown Braves of the Interstate Baseball League.

Joe Christian's three-run homer with two out in the last of the ninth gave the Braves a 5-2 victory over York last night, snapping a three-game losing streak. Seven hit pitching by Andy Bush, the circuit's leading pitcher last year, made the Braves the first team to defeat all of seven rivals.

The victory, 16th in 23 games, gave the Braves a 2½ game lead over Wilmington.

In the night's only other action, Allentown handed Lancaster its fifth reversal in a row, 4-3. A scheduled doubleheader between Wilmington and Salisbury was rained out.

Eastern League

By The Associated Press

George Uhazze, the small right-hander with the big winning streak, is a big reason why the Albany Senators are leading the Eastern League by two full games.

The unbeaten curver spun a three-hitter last night as the Senators beat the Scranton Miners twice, 2-1 and 6-3. Uhazze's victory in the seven-inning opener was his sixth.

The second-place Schenectady Blue Jays lost ground by dropping a 10-5 decision to the Hartford Chiefs. In the only other game the Elmira Pioneers squeezed out a 3-2 win over the Binghamton Triplets in 10 innings.

ENNIS AND ROSEN SCHOOL LEAGUE ARE TOPS AT BAT

NEW YORK (AP)—A steady stream of base hits by Del Ennis has moved the Philadelphia Phillies' muscular outfielder into the National League batting lead with a mark of .344.

Ennis, second last week, lost one point when he went five-for-15 but took the No. 1 spot when Brooklyn's Jackie Robinson slumped 20 points to .330.

The American League batting derby also underwent some changes. Boston's Dom DiMaggio picked up six points during the week to move into first place at .349, while last week's leader, Cleveland's Dale Mitchell, suffered a 27-point decline and fell to third with a .333 mark.

Whitey Lockman of the New York Giants went nine-for-21 and gained 19 points to climb into a second-place tie in the National League with Cincinnati's Joe Adcock at .333. Frankie Baumholtz of Chicago is tied for third place with Robinson at .330.

Cleveland's Al Rosen continued his consistent hitting to take over second place behind DiMaggio in American League. Rosen, who is setting the pace in home runs and runs batted with 10 and 26, respectively, is hitting .338.

QUALIFIERS SET TRACK RECORDS

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—A field that broke the track qualifying record four times will start Friday in the 36th annual 500-mile auto race at Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

The 33 starters averaged 135.504 miles an hour in the 10-mile qualifying runs that ended Monday.

Old-timers around the 2½-mile track contended the limit was near last year when the field averaged 133.570 in the time trials.

The mixture of veteran racers and young graduates of the hot rod and midget circuits wrecked four cars in the race preliminaries. There were no deaths.

Allen Heath of Northridge, Calif., escaped with cut lips and a sprained wrist in the only crash yesterday.

Chet Miller of Glendale, Calif., was the fourth driver to crack the track qualifying record and his smooth ride at 139.034 was almost an anti-climax. He had set a one-lap record of 139.6 miles an hour Saturday in a qualifying attempt stopped by engine trouble.

SCHOOL LEAGUE MAKES AWARDS FOR BASEBALL

All officers were re-elected and the baseball trophy awarded at a meeting of the Adams County Scholastic League officials Monday evening at Biglerville High School.

Those re-elected were: President, Jack Taylor; vice president, Purcell Ecker, Bolling Springs, and secretary-treasurer, Arthur M. Gordon, Biglerville.

The trophy emblematic of the baseball championship was accepted by Mr. Ecker. His Bolling Springs team won its second straight title this season. Fifteen gold baseballs were also presented by the league for members of the Bubbler squad. The policy of awarding gold balls was inaugurated by the league during the past basketball season. The 1953 baseball schedule was approved.

Hobart Benchoff, Biglerville, was named as temporary chairman of the Trophy Committee to replace Martin Fleagle, New Oxford, who is now hospitalized. Glenn Kemper, York Springs, and Ira Kerr, Fairfield, are other members of the committee.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

High School Commencement:

The commencement exercises of the class of '02 of the Gettysburg High School were held in the Assembly Hall, Meade building, Wednesday evening, under the fairest auspices. The hall was crowded to its utmost capacity with an interesting and appreciative audience. . . . Great credit is due to the participants, as well as the Principal, Prof. Book, and his assistant, Miss Cope, who by their co-operation made this commencement the banner one in the history of the public schools of Gettysburg. . . .

"The Class Ring" by Miss Holtzworth was especially worthy of mention. A recitation, "Lost in the Mountains," by Miss Lula Little, was another feature worthy of special praise.

The stage was elaborately decorated in the class colors, silver and maroon. . . . Mr. Little, the janitor, made every effort to provide comfort for the spectators.

The board of directors and our efficient corps of instructors occupied the left of the stage and the seniors occupied the center.

Prof. Hamilton, president of the board, presented the diplomas. Dr. T. C. Billheimer made the address to the graduating class.

The music was furnished by the College Mandolin Club and was much enjoyed.

The class tender thanks to Holtzworth Brothers for conveying graduates to and from the school building; to H. J. Gintling for furnishing light; to W. E. Ziegler for placing lights, and to all those who loaned flowers or helped in any way to make the exercise a success.

Pawnee Bill's Wild West: For the third time Pawnee Bill visited Gettysburg on Monday. The afternoon performance was attended by a large crowd, variously estimated at from 2,500 to 3,000. The evening entertainment, although rainy weather prevailed, was, nevertheless, well attended, and Gettysburg again has demonstrated herself as being one of the best show towns in the State.

The Show is a good one and those who witnessed it were thoroughly pleased with the exhibition. All the diurnal phases of frontier life were portrayed in a realistic and thrilling manner. The street parade was a very creditable one. In short, the show is an excellent one, the horses and ponies are beauties, and are well trained.

OPEN DOORS

There is an invisible welcome sign before every open door. It is inspiring to note the open doors of churches in our larger cities, ever ready to welcome anyone wishing to go in for a quiet moment of prayer and meditation, as well as spiritual refreshment.

Many of my years have been spent in selling, and I have met many big men—the biggest being those who were easiest to see—usually working in an office with an open door. Men who continually work behind closed doors lose something of human sympathy and understanding that they otherwise might gain.

There is something to be learned from almost every human being with whom we come in contact. Creative minds scatter seeds about them wherever they go. Some of these seeds fall in fertile soil and bless the planter far beyond his own span of years.

Conan Doyle called the door into his library "The Magic Door." Thousands of us could well say that the door to our library is a "Magic" one! I removed the door to my home library so that it would be easy, and comfortable, for people to meet my silent friends. A closed door might appear too prohibitive. Nothing is so democratic and liberal as a room of books!

Anyone is to be commended who has an open mind, a mind that welcomes ideas, no matter how new or old. There should be no closed doors to the mind. Beaten paths and open doors are always significant. Among nations, what is termed an "open door policy" should be a universal fact—all nations on an equal footing being able to trade with all other nations—no one nation being favored above another.

All nature is an open door, and we can adventure therein to our heart's content. Civilization would never have advanced as it has without the open doors which have always invited those in search of something new and useful. Welcome to the Open Door!

Little Terry, counting sheep in a white room fell asleep. When he woke and looked about Doctors had his tonsils out.

Said the surgeon with a smile: "That took just a little while!" "Just a little while," said I. "Hours I thought were dragging by."

"Worry started first when we learned that this would have to be. Let me tell you, from the start we have all been sick at heart."

"He'll be better soon," say you. Now it's done, we're better, too. Freed from fear and every doubt, Terry's had his tonsils out.

AIR RAID TEST

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia area had its first air raid test alert since World War II today. In Philadelphia the "red alert" came at 8:35 a.m. EST and lasted 10 minutes. In Delaware, Bucks and Montgomery Counties, the sirens sounded at the same time but the test was of a shorter duration.

The peace pact will give Germany nearly complete independence. The defense pact joins together the armed forces of Germany, France, Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg.

These troops will comprise a unit of the North Atlantic Treaty Command, which also includes British and American forces.

To Be Some Opposition
The Senate must act, not only on the peace agreement, but also on a proposed amendment to the North Atlantic Treaty to extend its guarantees to Germany.

Chairman Connally (D-Tex) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee told a reporter he will ask for quick Senate action after President Truman submits the pacts. Connally doesn't expect any serious opposition to either. Many other senators agreed.

However, Sen. Malone (R-Nev) indicated the agreements won't be ratified without some opposition. Malone said in an interview he believes the peace compact signed with Germany represents a futile gesture.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Two sticks of dynamite blew a small hole in the roof of Walker Vocational College here early today.

The Negro college is a polling place in today's second Democratic Primary election.

REPORT "RED" POW'S READY TO COME TO TERMS

KOJE ISLAND, Korea (AP)—Tough Communist prisoners of war in Compound 95—scene of April 10 rioting—were reported ready to come to terms with Gen. Haydon L. Boatner today.

Red leaders of the 6,000 POWs in 95 told the new commander of this United Nations No. 1 prison camp they were ready to obey his orders. But they asked to meet with him.

Informed sources said Boatner replied that the Reds first must comply with certain things before he would talk with them. He sent Col. Maurice J. Fitzgerald, former deputy commander of the camp, to confer with the Reds.

Want POW Bodies
Fitzgerald reportedly told the Red leaders they would have to deliver for burial the bodies of an estimated eight POWs killed in the riot six weeks ago.

Fitzgerald's only comment was that the prisoners then made a lot of "wild demands." He did not elaborate.

Informed sources said the Reds asked that all 6,000 prisoners in the compound be permitted to attend the funeral for the slain men. Presumably the Reds wanted to use the funeral for a propaganda parade past other enclosures.

Stiff Actions Taken
Boatner's headquarters announced that stiff disciplinary action had been taken against an American soldier who yesterday walked into one of the compounds in direct disobedience of orders.

The soldier's immediate superior also was rebuked. Names of the men involved were not announced.

The new commandant also ordered earth-moving machinery to dig in the area of Compound 76 to learn if there are any prisoner escape tunnels. No tunnels have been uncovered.

GERMAN PEACE PACT TO GET SENATE OKAY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate approval was forecast today for a new peace pact signed between the Allies and Western Germany and a European arms treaty being concluded in Paris today.

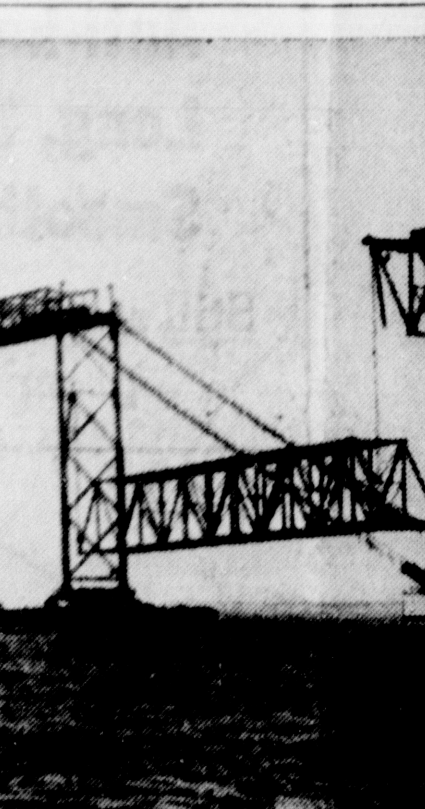

The peace pact will give Germany nearly complete independence. The defense pact joins together the armed forces of Germany, France, Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg.

These troops will comprise a unit of the North Atlantic Treaty Command, which also includes British and American forces.

NEW MEXICO MAY BAN ALL ROADSIDE ADS

SANTA FE, N. M. (AP)—A national feud has hit New Mexico, but this time it promises to produce a new twist or two.

New Mexico officials will bring out movies to support their contention that they have power to regulate signboards along the highways.

It's possible, too, that they will ask the courts to set a precedent for the whole country by settling the basic issue behind all the legal wrangling. The issue is: Can a state legally restrict signboards for esthetic purposes?

Movies Taken
The attorney general's office and highway department have taken pictures of the signs involved in the suit. They concentrated especially on the chain-type signs described by Zinn as "snake-pit" signs. The shots—both movies and stills—will be used as exhibits in the trial.

Some of the movies were taken from the angle of a motorist, in an effort to show that a driver who read all the signs would have his eyes off the road took much of the time.

Before the litigation is finished, both sides will have their big brothers in up to their necks. Both the National Association of Outdoor Advertisers and the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads—old foes on the issue—have offered help.

Sign Regulations
The regulations ban signs within 50 feet of the right of way; limit the size to not more than 12 by 25 feet, and restrict their near intersections and curves.

The highway commission is defending its right to regulate signs mainly on grounds that its police power authorizes it to do so to enforce public safety and welfare.

The plaintiffs—a group of signboard people and their customers—say the New Mexico billboard regulations "are not designed, and are unnecessary, to protect the public peace, health and safety." They admit their 44 signs all violate state regulations. Some are within 50 feet of the right of way; some are too close together, and some are too long.

State Regulations Suspended
Meanwhile, the state's signboard regulations—which make most signs in the state illegal—are not effective for the duration of a temporary injunction.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Frank Zinn announced recently that he was studying the advisability of basing a new defense on esthetic grounds. If he does so, he is expected to make this defense supplemental to the one claiming police power.

The plaintiffs contend the rules are based on a law which violates both the U. S. and New Mexico constitutions. They contend the due process clauses in the federal and state constitutions are violated. They ask that the temporary injunction be made permanent.

Through the fund program the auxiliary hopes to have a "substantial amount" available when the board of directors of the hospital go ahead with plans to construct a new building to modernize the facilities at the institution. Mrs. David Blocher, president of the auxiliary, said.

Directs Acquittal In Boys' Deaths

HACKENSACK (AP)—A Bergen County Jury has acquitted 39-year-old Charles Hossack of charges that he murdered his two baby sons nine years ago by slashing their throats.

Hossack had been judged criminally insane and committed to the State Hospital in Trenton after the murder charge was placed against him in 1943.

Yesterday, Superior Court Judge J. Wallace Leyden instructed the jury to bring in a verdict of acquittal. This instruction followed testimony from three psychiatrists that Hossack was released from the hospital in September, 1951, but suffered a relapse in January and needed further treatment.

Hossack will be returned to the State Hospital, but there will be no murder charge against him. During the trial, which lasted only 40 minutes, Hossack told the court he understood the proceedings and realized he needed treatment.

M'SHERRYSTOWN RITES ARE HELD

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Patrick F. McGee, chaplain of the McSherrystown Catholic War Veterans, pointed out Sunday that Memorial Day should not be a one-day observance, something to be forgotten the remainder of the year. Speaking before the veterans and a throng assembled in the Blessed Virgin Mary parish cemetery, McSherrystown, the chaplain reminded the group that preservation of the freedom enjoyed in America isn't a one-day-a-year task.

The annual ceremonies sponsored by the Annunciation Post 372, Catholic War Veterans, were preceded by a parade led by the color guard of the post. Included among the marching units were drum corps from the Delone Catholic High School, Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and hundreds of school children, veterans and clergy.

At the cemetery flowers were placed on the graves of the soldiers by the children and prayers offered by the entire assembly. A salute to the dead was fired by the veterans and taps was sounded by James Wierman.

Bernard I. Noel was in charge of the color guard and Edgar T. Keffer headed the firing squad.

Teeter, membership chairman, reported.

Tea was served following the meeting by Mrs. Teeter. The next meeting, the last to be held before the summer recess, will be held June 23, it was announced. Those who will serve at the meeting will include Mrs. David Pitzer, Mrs. John Pitzer, Mrs. Richard Bradford and Mrs. Alfred Fidler.

in an East German Cabinet decree last night ordering immediate "strengthening" of the East's forces all along the border between East and West Germany.

The order did not say what form this strengthening would take but it directed Wilhelm Zaisser, chief of the Red secret police, to set up "proper and adequate" safeguards against spies, saboteurs and agents which it said threatened from the West.

As yet the West had no visible evidence of reinforcements on the Iron Curtain borders.

Red Tanks Readied
West German border police said, however, they had reports from persons crossing the East zone line that 131 Russian tanks were dispersed in the Brunswick area. At that point the British zone state of Lower Saxony and the East zone state of Saxon-Anhalt met.

These reports said troop garrisons in the area had been increased in the past few days.

At Luebnburg, another East zone frontier point, West German border police said travelers from the Communist zone told them huge signs are going up along the border warning West German visitors with interzonal passes to leave East Germany immediately.

TELL OF BLOODY SEPTEMBER IN KOJE PRISON; 5 RIOTOUS DAYS

By WILLIAM JORDEN
KOJE ISLAND, Korea (AP)—Informed sources said today Communist and anti-Red prisoners of war battled each other for control of barbed wire POW enclosures for five riotous days in what Koje veterans call "bloody September."

The five day struggle—not yet officially announced—caused 100 POW casualties, including 15 killed by prisoners. United Nations guards wounded 14 with gunfire and 22 with bayonets, quelling the riots.

Bloody September was concentrated from Sept. 1 to the night of the 20th. Veterans say savage fighting erupted inside the compounds for control of the prisoners.

Barbaric Treatment
U. N. hospital officials say Red POWs treat each other with such barbarity that they have killed more prisoners than have Allied guards in suppressing three POW riots announced this year.

Camp officials concede they do not have control inside the barbed wire enclosures. Red leaders have organized prisoners into a crude but disciplined army, equipped with stones, clubs and weapons fashioned from cans and metal bars. They also have pistols and rifles seized from guards in riots or bought from civilians.

At least 115 prisoners have died from brutal beatings, hangings or torture in clashes between die-hard Communists and anti-Communists within the barbed wire enclosures, hospital records show.

Guards Killed 97
Guards suppressing three riots in this U. N. POW camp killed 97. Lt. Col. S. M. Gelenger, Flint, Mich., head of the hospital, said bodies of prisoners of slain within the compounds often are not recovered for days.

Hospital records give many instances of brutality by the POWs. One prisoner found dead had been buried alive.

Brig. Gen. Haydon L. Boatner said the POWs could have captured the island about two weeks ago had they wanted to. They still are forging weapons but the time has passed when the Reds could gain control outside their compounds, he said.

POW Executions
The U. S. 64th Field Hospital was established on Koje July 2. Its records show 415 prisoner deaths—115 from POW brutality, 122 from gunshot wounds and 178 from natural causes.

There are 689 prisoner graves in Koje cemetery but records of POW deaths before July 2 are not available.

Gelenger said almost daily prisoners are treated after being beaten or tortured by other inmates. In one incident last September, a POW court tried, convicted and executed 15 prisoners. Nine bodies had been burned before camp officials learned of the killings and sent troops to recover the remaining bodies.

Skin Stripped Off
Gelenger said a favorite method used by prisoners in killing other inmates was to beat them to death with tent poles.

Other prisoners' throats have been cut with crude knives or the edges of tin cans. Some have been hanged with rope or wire.

The skin of many prisoners who had anti-Communist tattoos was stripped from their bodies by Communist, Gelenger related. The Reds have their own doctors and medical aides inside many of the compounds and insist on treating their own injured.

Full Facts Never Known
The full facts of torture and death inside the sinister compounds probably never will be known. But guards on the outside say they frequently hear screams and moans in the enclosures.

The separation of anti-Communists from prisoners favoring Red rule has reduced some prisoner brutality. But many anti-Reds are still inside the compounds. Most of the conflict is between these factions but homosexuality also is presumed to cause some of the trouble. At Pusan Allied military police have removed Red leaders from the last two Communist dominated compounds at the U. N. POW hospital there. There was no resistance to the removal from the avowed Reds in contrast to last week. Then one prisoner was killed and 85 were injured resisting efforts to move them to Koje.

2 DEAD, 6 LOST WHEN TANKER, BARGE COLLIDE

By LEE LINDER
WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—A tanker loaded with crude oil and a gasoline-laden barge collided during a driving rain on the Delaware River, 34.15 miles south of here Sunday night, both exploding into flames that sent crewmen diving into the water.

Two men were reported dead, six missing and one injured crewman is at Wilmington General Hospital suffering from shock.

There were 39 survivors from the collision between the 10,441 ton tanker Michael and the 1,500 ton barge, A. J. Dodd.

Seaman Escapes
Hours after the collision near Reedy Island, orange flames and thick black smoke covered the surface of the water and filled the sky over a half mile area.

The Michael drifted to the New Jersey shore and ran up on a beach. The ship has a big hole at the water line of its starboard bow. Several Coast Guard vessels stood off shore watching the burning vessel.

The smaller craft was almost completely submerged just off Augustine Beach near Fort Penn, Del. A few minor explosions were heard from the Dodd from time to time.

Sjur Tellefsen, 29-year-old seaman, so far is the only survivor from the barge. Speaking from his hospital bed, Tellefsen said, "I was very lucky to get out of my boat alive. I was asleep when I was jolted out of bed by the crash."

"I grabbed a life preserver, then rushed to the open porthole and pushed my way through into the water."

The European corn borer has been found in 37 states of the United States.

Steelworker Is Held In Deaths

PITTSBURGH (AP)—County detectives accused a 50-year-old steelworker of slaying his wife and a roomer today after hiding in a darkened living room to spy on the victims.

The story, as told by Joseph Devlin, assistant chief of Allegheny County detectives, is this: Frank Kosiores, of nearby Pitcairn, is accused by Devlin of knifing and shooting his wife, Edna, 52; and Robert Smith, 46-year-old railroad carpenter, before dawn in the Kosiores home.

Kosiores is being held for questioning by county detectives who said a formal murder charge will be filed soon.

KOJE PRISON SEETHES BUT UNDER CONTROL

KOJE ISLAND, Korea (AP)—Red prisoners of war are forging deadly weapons in their barbed wire enclosures but Brig. Gen. Haydon L. Boatner said Monday the time had passed when they could have captured this island.

United Nations guard forces now could control prisoners outside the island's 17 POW compounds, the new camp commander told newly arrived combat-wise Canadian and British troops.

But inside the compounds—housing 80,000 North Korean and Chinese captives—die-hard Communists still rule, he said.

About two weeks ago, the POWs could have crashed their barbed wire enclosures; they would have suffered hundreds of casualties but probably could have taken over the island "if they had wanted," he said.

Each compound holds 5,000 to 6,000 prisoners. But within two weeks the Reds will be divided into groups of 500 in new, smaller compounds.

Some camp authorities said the POWs now have pistols and rifles—seized in riots or bought from civilians.

Well Organized

Within each compound the Reds have a well organized military system. Each enclosure is divided into a battalion, companies and platoons. Strict military discipline prevails. The Communist leaders drill their men—even hold small-scale military tactics using dummy rifles or clubs for mock bayonet drill.

It also is suspected that the prisoners have stocks of gasoline useful for making homemade firebombs—known in World War II as "Molotov cocktails." Witnesses have said eight or nine large drums of gasoline were moved into Compound 76 two weeks ago while its members held an American general hostage. The prisoners reportedly demanded the fuel during negotiations for release of the officer, Brig. Gen. Francis T. Dodd.

Gettysburg High School Alumni Association Celebrating Golden Anniversary Thursday Night

Founders And Charter Members To Be Honored At Banquet In New HS Cafeteria; Dance To Follow In Gym

Gettysburg High School, then housed in the present Meade School building, had just handed diplomas to 18 seniors, its first graduating class in the 20th century, when the High School Alumni Association was born June 10, 1901.

It is the 50th anniversary of the celebration those first officers planned in 1902 that is being observed by high school alumni at their golden anniversary banquet and dance Thursday evening, May 28, at the high school building.

A group of old grads led by D. Montfort Melchior, '98, and Roy C. Dougherty, '96, got together, in the building that served as the local high school until 1909 and formed an association.

Trolleys Here Then

As nearly as the survivors of that group can remember now, the purposes at the outset were chiefly social but the record shows that the group soon launched money-raising projects to improve the schools and benefit the graduates with scholarships and frequently took public stands on matters of school policy.

It's likely that those of the 63 charter members who attended that first meeting walked to the Meade High School but they could have ridden Gettysburg's trolley. The local papers were talking then about great plans for a trolley network through the East that would link Gettysburg and the nation's capital. Those who came down Baltimore St. enroute to the meeting saw men's suits in Lieberman's window at $12.50 and passed H. B. Bender's furniture store on the same street. There were visitors in town, too, for the 35th annual Encampment of the Pennsylvania Department of the Grand Army of the Republic, a red-letter event in the town's calendar.

Plank Was Winning Fame

The Star and Sentinel the next Wednesday carried a column of "rave" notices from the city papers about Eddie Plank, the Gettysburg College wonder, and the southpaw's twirling for the Philadelphia Athletics. William B. McIlhenny had just been appointed as Gettysburg's new postmaster. Conversations on the way to that meeting may have been about the Boer War raging in Africa or about Marconi's preparations to send the first wireless signal across the Atlantic.

Minutes have disappeared but a record of that initial meeting of Gettysburg High School alumni appeared two days later in the weekly Star and Sentinel as follows:

"A Gettysburg High School Alumni Association was organized Monday evening, June 10, at Meade High School, about 54 graduates being present.

"The officers elected were: N. C. Barbehenn, of Susquehanna University, president; Roy C. Dougherty, vice president; Milton R. Remmel, treasurer; Margaret McMillan, secretary; Executive Committee, Elsie Martin, Lillie Dougherty, George Wierman, D. Montfort Melchior and Rose Plank; Committee on Constitution, Roy Dougherty, Pauline Wisotzki and Harold Lewars. The next meeting of the Alumni will be held June 27."

Hunter Was Principal

At the June 27 meeting a constitution was adopted and plans made for future meetings. J. D. Hunter was the high school principal then and Miss Helen Cope the only other teacher in the school that had 84 pupils enrolled that year. Prof. Hunter resigned soon after school ended in the summer of 1901 and W. I. Book, his successor, is listed among the charter members of the Alumni Association as is Miss Cope. Amanda M. Tawney was salutatorian of the Senior Class that year and John S. Gilbert was its president. The class and the Alumni Association joined in a resolution of "sorrow and regret" soon after graduation time on the loss of Prof. Hunter. Calvin Hamilton was president of the School Board that year.

ROY F. DOUGHERTY

In 1902 at a dinner meeting, Roy Dougherty was advanced to the presidency and presided over a banquet meeting at the Eagle Hotel in 1903 that did not adjourn until after midnight and was featured by a talk by Mr. Melchior and a dance. Sixty attended the 1903 event.

Gave Scholarship Prizes

No record can be found of the 1904 meeting but Miss Lillie Dougherty was elected president in that year for she was presiding over the fourth annual banquet in 1905 when the first prizes—$5 and $3—were presented to the top-ranking scholars in the graduating class. Fred G. Troxell, for many years a member of the Gettysburg High School faculty and destined to become an Alumni Association president, was elected to his first alumni office at the 1905 event. He was chosen as treasurer; Louise Stahl, president; Mary Sheads, vice president, and James Long, secretary. "Most Elaborate Ever"

A brief newspaper notice says

J. MONTFORT MELCHIOR

simply that a banquet was held by the association in 1906 and no record can be found as to who was named to the presidency that year. However at the 1907 commencement exercises, the alumni prizes were awarded by Rebecca Drum as vice president of the High School Alumni Association.

Annual meetings were held on succeeding years with a note in 1909 that the affair that year attracted 68 and was the "most elaborate ever held by the association." Attorney Raymond Topper was elected president in 1907 and Dr. John B. Zinn, now head of the Chemistry Department at Gettysburg College, was the choice for president in 1908. John Sachs was elected at the big affair in 1909 and Calvin Hartman in 1910.

At a meeting in April, 1911, the Alumni Association decided that steps should be taken to secure money toward the establishment of a gymnasium for the high school. The alumni decided to repeat "Crawford's Claim" that had been given successfully five years before. The purpose was to raise money to pay off the balance due on the stage and start a gymnasium fund.

Worked For Gym

The alumni announced to the press that they wanted the gymnasium (the present Lincoln School was then being used as the high school) for "the usual purposes and to give the boys their own room for basketball which has become quite popular in recent years."

At the annual meeting in June that year Calvin Hartman was re-elected president and Ernest Ziegler was named vice president. Miss Grace Sachs was the new secretary and Charles Culp, treasurer.

In 1912 the association gave the "Nautical Knot" in the high school building and netted $35 to be used in the work of the association, John Blocher was president that year.

Class Reunions Begin

Class reunions appear to have been initiated at the 1913 annual meeting when fifth, 10th and 20th year classes held get-togethers. Luther Musselman was chosen president of the association.

At the 1914 alumni gathering, the association voted $25 of its funds to the high school library and elected Fred G. Troxell president and Milton Remmel was returned to the office of treasurer.

Backed School Loan Vote

Minutes of the association since 1916 give a record of the association's activities and reveal that in November of that year a special meeting was called to put the influence of the association back of the move to have the town voters approve a loan for a new high school building. The alumni asked the townfolk "to ponder well upon the absolute necessity of more room and the general betterment of public schools in Gettysburg." But the loan was defeated at the polls the next week and the town waited 10 more years for its new high school.

While annual meetings were continued, the banquet was dropped as a feature for some years and the yearly gatherings usually took the form of a business meeting and dance combined. Sometimes the business was transacted at the dance intermission in Xavier Hall. William Troxell was advanced to the presidency in 1915 and Clair Sowers followed in 1916. The late Luther E. McDonnell of the class of 1908, who never missed a class reunion until this year, was elected president in 1917, an office to which he was returned in 1928.

Resumed Banquets

In 1919 when Russell Stauffer was elected president, a movement was started to write a new constitution for the association when it was discovered the original 1901 document had disappeared. The new constitution was adopted in 1920 at an annual meeting in Glatfelter Hall on the college campus. Charles Miller was chosen president in 1920 and Maurice Stallsmith in 1921.

In 1922 Henry M. Scharf of the class of '21 was elected alumni president at the annual meeting in Xavier Hall. At the same session it was decided to hold the annual meetings one more in connection with a banquet. The first banquet was held in 1923 at the old Hoffman Hotel June 5, 1923, with 125 present and Mr. Scharf presiding. At that affair William G. Weaver, now the burgess of Gettysburg, was elected alumni president.

At the 1924 banquet at the Hotel

Gettysburg, the practice of holding quinquennial class reunions was proposed. Brady Arnor was elected president that night.

Honor Miss Cope At Retirement

Charles C. Culp, Class of 1908, began a three-year tenure in the presidency in 1925. At the banquet in 1926, a diamond ring was presented as a tribute from the alumni to Miss Helen L. Cope, who retired that year as the new high school building was occupied and the old high school building at York and Hanover Sts. became Lincoln Grade School building. At the same banquet a gold pen knife was presented to Walter D. Reynolds, who had resigned from the high school faculty, by the Class of 1913.

The Class of 1909 was the last to attend Meade and the first to graduate from the new high school that became Lincoln School. The Class of 1926 held its graduation exercises in the new auditorium although the entire building did not go into use until the fall.

With the new building came Dr. Lloyd C. Keefe as supervising principal and G. W. Lefever as principal. Those men have held their respective offices longer than any other educators in the history of Gettysburg High School.

Silver Anniversary Marked

When Miss Cope was honored by the alumni in June, 1926, she was named an honorary member of the association and elected its president emerita. She had served 30 years in the local public schools as teacher and principal and after the death in 1916 of W. A. Burgoon became supervising principal of Gettysburg public schools. The high school here established a full four-year program under her guidance and its standards enabled graduates to enter leading colleges.

Always a guest at alumni banquets, regularly sitting with some reunion class, Miss Cope continued her active interest in school and alumni affairs until her death on April 1, 1944.

The Silver Anniversary of the Alumni Association was marked at a banquet in 1927 in the new (present) high school building. C. C. Culp was president then and Roy Dougherty, one of the association founders, talked. There were a one-act play directed by Miss Lillie Dougherty and special music by alumni.

Alumni Council Set Up

County Treasurer Carl S. Menchey was elected alumni president in 1929 and Mrs. Ethel Culp Rhodes followed in 1930. The Rev. Paul Reaser began a two-year term in the presidency in 1931. In 1932, it was discovered the constitution had been lost again and the association set about to get a new one. In 1933, the Alumni Council was set up to facilitate the handling of association business.

No Banquet In 1943

Melvin Little had been elected president in 1933 and J. Melchior Sheads followed in 1934. In 1935 Wilbur King was elected president and a new constitution was adopted giving new importance to the office of statistician. William G. Weaver returned to the presidency for a two-year hitch in 1936 and was followed by Mrs. Ellen Tipton Buehler in 1938 and she served three consecutive terms. Glenn Sachs was elected in 1941; Robert D. Fidler, now a high school teacher here, was chosen for the presidency in 1942.

In 1943, war conditions brought a decision to omit a banquet from annual plans but a dance and entertainment were held. Even the starting hour for the affair had to be delayed because of a Home Guard drill that evening. Air cadets from the Training Detachment at Gettysburg College helped with the entertainment program and J. Herbert Raymond was chosen president.

Activities during the remainder of the year were curtailed but the association sent 400 Christmas greetings to grads in the armed forces that holiday season.

Helped Erect Service Honor Roll

In the spring of 1944 the Alumni Association cooperated with the high school student body and the student council in planning for and

SMALL CHERRY CROP PREDICTED

Poor pollination because of cold and rainy weather will result in a local cherry crop 40 to 50 per cent less than that of 1951, according to some estimates. Don Horst, crop supervisor for the C. H. Musselman Company, said that accurate estimates must wait until June 1, at least, since development is not sufficient for certain estimates. The poor pollination weather which held down bee activity as they perform this vital function did not affect other areas, according to reports.

The later blooms of cherries did best, according to Mr. Horst. Earlier blooms did not do so well. There will be several ripening periods due to the weather fluctuations. In average years most cherries are on the outer perimeter of the trees. This year they will be distributed throughout the trees to a great degree. Full spray and insect control will be of special importance this year because of the dampness favoring pests and disease. The leaf spot, reported in the county, will not affect the cherry crop this season. The disease, however, weakens the tree and has later effect if not brought under control, Horst said.

financing the erection of a Service Honor Roll in the high school building. Dedicated at public exercises May 25, 1944, the roll was accepted for the school by Dr. Keefe after an address by Dr. Robert A. Bream, an alumnus. The walnut and gold service roll then bore more than 600 names and more than a hundred were added later.

The association omitted its banquet again that year but held a get-together and meeting and re-elected Raymond president.

Association minutes for April, 1944, bear a resolution of "profound regret" upon the death of Miss Cope. "A woman of broad vision and untiring energy, she won and maintained the love and respect of those who came in contact with her in the public schools," the resolution said and expressed the "esteem and affection" in which Miss Cope was held by her former pupils and their sense of personal loss in the passing of "this first friend."

Gave First Cup Award

The annual banquets were resumed at the high school in 1945 and that year marked the first presentation of the Helen Cope memorial award, instituted by the Soroptimist Club to honor the best English student and best all around girl. Gloria Ecker was the first recipient.

In 1945, LeRoy H. Winebrenner was elected to the presidency and served two years. Jay Schmitt followed in the next two years and the 1948 banquet meeting was the largest ever held up to that time with 280 graduates and seniors there. That year the association voted to combine the offices of secretary and statistician.

John H. Baschore, who is borough treasurer, justice of the peace and Republican county chairman among other responsibilities, found time to head the alumni in 1949 and 1950 and the current president, Attorney Eugene R. Hartman, was elected in 1951 and re-elected by the Alumni Council in April.

At the 1949 banquet there were 340 present to set a new record and during the business session that evening first plans were laid for the present celebration.

The 1950 banquet saw 356 in attendance and 50th anniversary committees were announced in 1951 to plan this year's observance.

Now the association's mailing list numbers nearly 3,000 and the high school is producing 113 new prospects for association membership in the Senior Class.

Graduates of the school now total more than 4,000.

PESKY ADVISES USE OF WRISTS

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Everybody but opposing pitchers loves Johnny Pesky of the Boston Red Sox. The players think he's tops because he's always hustling, even at 32. The sports writers adore him because the fellow of Yugoslav ancestry changed his name from Pavsekovich to Pesky.

He broke into the majors in 1942 after sensational 325 seasons at Rocky Mount, N. C., and Louisville. And he hit 331 his first year up. Not only that but he made 205 hits and led the American League shortstops in assists with 465.

Here's Pesky's advice on hitting:

"The most important thing is to hit a strike. Try to hit the ball where it's pitched.

"I take a short swing like the Phil Rizzuto, Billy Goodman, George Kell type of hitter.

"Be ready for the fast ball. With my type of hitting I can see the ball better and a lot of times I can see the spin of the ball. You can tell when the ball is breaking.

"Just try to hit the ball with the meat part of the bat.

"It's my job to get on base. The big guys can drive me home. When you get on base you can help your ball club.

"Hit with your hands and wrists. That's what Ted Williams says.

RECIPE IS GIVEN FOR PECAN ROLLS

Following is a recipe used by Miss Madeline D. Linehan, The Gettysburg Times Cooking School lecturer, at the South Mountain Fairgrounds. The recipe was not included on the printed menu and is printed at the request of a member who attend the school.

Miss Linehan's description of the recipe follows:

"This recipe is a fine basic refrigerator dough, suitable for coffee cakes, rolls, etc. Basic refrigerator dough can be stored or frozen until read for use."

Pecan Rolls

1 yeast cake
1/2 c. lukewarm water
1 c. hot water
1/2 c. sugar
1 tsp. salt
5 c. all purpose flour
3/4 c. veg. shortening or butter
Break yeast cake into cup—1/2 c. lukewarm water, add 1 teaspoon sugar in large bowl, put 1 cup hot water and 3/4 cup butter melted, 1/2 c. sugar, 1 tsp. salt. Let cool to lukewarm, add yeast and beaten eggs. Add flour, 1 c. at a time, beating well. Store in refrigerator.

a living organism that claims their interest as well. It is the Gettysburg Baptist Church, located a block and a half from the center of town. It was organized by the Pennsylvania Baptist Convention in response to a request from a Baptist for held in establishing a Baptist church.

"A survey of the area revealed a total of over 100 persons of Baptist heritage or interest. Meetings were begun in a lodge hall. A church and school were organized and services held.

"By the summer of 1951 the members of the church heard of a nearby congregation which was planning to erect a new edifice. The Baptists then arranged to buy their neighbors' former building at a nominal cost. It is an attractive house of worship.

"Rev. Herbert N. Brownlee has been called to serve both Chambersburg, about 25 miles away, and Gettysburg. These thriving, vigorous, young congregations offer inspiring contrast to the graves of the dead and the stone monuments that mark their burial places.

"The best memorial a community can erect is a vital church. If there were more of them perhaps there would be fewer war cemeteries."

BONN EVENTS LATEST SCENE IN GREAT DRAMA

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—What happened in Germany Monday—U. S., Britain, and France signing a peace treaty with Germany—is the latest scene in a great modern drama.

This treaty is part of a desire of the West to build such strength that the Soviet commissars would be forced into peace by fear of what faced them if they tried war.

In the Eastern zone of Germany, occupied by Russia, about 18 million Germans live under the Com-unist thumb. The three Western zones—occupied by the U. S., Britain, and France—have 50 million Germans. And that Western area of Germany is the greatest industrial center in Europe.

Blocked By Russians

When it became clear Russia wouldn't let divided Germany reunite except under Russian terms, the West let the Germans in their zones form the Western German Republic.

It is with that republic—not Russian-dominated Eastern Germany—that the peace treaty was signed Monday. It is not a complete treaty. The West didn't agree to relinquish all control.

For instance, it reserved the right to intervene if the Western German Republic was threatened with overthrow by internal revolt. In other words if the Communists

State, District, Conference Championships Have Been Won By Gettysburg High Athletes

Small, but a recognized power in high school athletic circles, may very aptly be applied to Gettysburg High School.

A state championship baseball team, three District 3 PIAA basketball titles, three South Penn football championships, and no less than 14 titles in the South Penn Conference track meet have been gained during the colorful history of school athletics.

Baseball was started way back in 1903 but it was not until 1911 when the late Prof. Walter D. Reynolds took over that athletics really got underway.

Undefeated In '21

Among those playing on the first baseball team were Ted Horner, Carl Menchey, David Blocher, Mahlon Hartley and Ralph Oyler.

In 1921 the first undefeated season was recorded when 14 straight games were won. George "Buzz" Hunter and Brady "Bucky" Armor were the mainstays of the pitching staff.

Four years later Gettysburg gained its state championship when it won the Western Conference title and then laced Easton here 12-2 before an over-flow crowd which jammed the old playground field. Members of that team included Jim Tennant, p; Jake Weikert, c; Melvin Heiges, 1b; Wib Moser, 2b; Tucker Myers, 3b; Sylvester McKenrick, ss; Wilmer Bream, Eddie Utz and Frank Gardner, of.

Won Western Title

The following year the team also won the Western title but lost out in the state title game 4-3 at Easton.

At present the Warriors are a member of the South Penn League, organized in 1947. There are but four members, Chambersburg, Hanover and Shippensburg.

In 40 years of football warfare there has been but one undefeated team—that of 1951 which won eight and tied another—to gain the South Penn title for the first time since 1931. Previously GHS won the conference honors in 1929.

Previous to that the 1919 team was scored upon but once and lost to Scotland 6-0 for a 7-1 record. A one-point defeat at the hands of York 7-6, prevented the team of 1922 from having the first undefeated season. The team that season scored the amazing total of 364 points to its opponents' 13 to win eight of nine games. The following year York again prevented an unblemished record with a 24-0 victory in the final game of the season.

A Power In Basketball

Gettysburg High has made its presence felt in basketball circles for many years. The first home "court" was in the old skating rink on Hanover St. Later the team moved to the old gymnasium at Gettysburg College and in 1926 gained its own gymnasium at the first time when the present school was built.

From 1921 to 1929 the school was a member of the very first Central Pennsylvania circuit and met such tried revolution, the West could step in.

But the peace treaty itself is only preliminary to another scene which will be acted out today letting Germany rearm and put troops in an international army.

When Russia had become too menacing, the West made the North Atlantic Pact, a military alliance among the nations ringing the ocean. But this alliance without arms was not much of an alliance.

And such an alliance without Germany, with its great resources and manpower, particularly if Germany were left loose to tie up with Russia someday, might be worse than no alliance at all.

Approvals Awaited

So it was decided to take two steps almost simultaneously: (1) sign a peace treaty and (2) let Germany rearm a bit and get into the Western military alliance.

Agreement on the treaty and the troops is being made only by the foreign ministers of the various countries involved. None of it is complete until the parliaments of those countries approve.

No one predicts what lies ahead. Trouble there will be, surely. Russia will try to block the agreements from going into effect. Communists have threatened trouble.

teams as Harrisburg Tech, Reading, Williamsport, Lebanon, William Penn, John Harris, Lansford, Lock Haven, Sunbury, Lancaster and others who were members of the circuit at various times. While never a champion, the smallest team in the league always gave a good account of itself. During those years the best bid for a title was made in 1930 when a four-way tie developed for first place but Gettysburg was eliminated by Reading.

Track Triumphs

Beginning in 1933 the Warriors became affiliated with the South Penn League and won titles in 1933, '35, '41, '42 and '43. The teams of 1941-42-43 swept through to District 3 championships which gained Gettysburg state-wide recognition they have enjoyed since.

Track blossomed forth as a true major sport with the establishment of the South Penn meet in 1932. George Forney's teams won the first eight meets, lost out to Hanover in 1943 and then added five more titles before Carlisle took over in 1949, '50 and '51. The Warriors won their 14th title in the 18 meets this year and completed their regular season unbeaten to rank with last fall's unbeaten football squad.

FURLOUGH DAY AFTER STRIKE

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Westinghouse Electric Corporation's sprawling East Pittsburgh plant was shut down today with management idling 13,000 CIO production workers by imposing a one-day disciplinary furlough for the entire plant.

In contrast to massed picket lines of CIO International Union of Electrical Workers, Local 601, which staged a strike yesterday, streets surrounding plant entrances were virtually deserted at starting time.

Only supervisory and office employees, members of an independent union, entered the plant. Production workers had been notified last Friday that the plant would be shut down today.

The one-day strike yesterday in protest over a seniority program management recently put into effect, followed Saturday and Sunday picketing to enforce the CIO's ban on overtime work.

The company's one-day retaliatory shutdown was imposed by Westinghouse for what it called illegal work stoppages and strikes. Union Vice President Steve Hritz had countered it as a "lookout" Westinghouse has scheduled operations tomorrow.

3 AIRMEN KILLED
FRANKLIN, Va. (AP)—Three airmen awaiting transfer overseas were killed yesterday when their B-45 Tornado jet bomber blew up and crashed near here while on a routine training flight.

The plane was based at Langley Air Force Base and was attached to the 47th Bombardment Wing of the 49th Air Division.

DUKE RETURNS

SOUTHAMPTON, England (AP)—The Duke of Windsor returned to England today for another visit with his mother, 85-year-old Queen Mary. The Duke arrived on the liner Queen Elizabeth. His wife, for whom he gave up the throne in 1936, left the ship a few hours earlier when it stopped at Cherbourg, France.

Guest speaker for the evening was Dr. Milton Stokes of the Gettysburg College faculty who spoke on "Canada," his native land. Indicating the vast size of Canada by pointing out that St. John's, Newfoundland, is nearer Antwerp, Belgium, than the west coast of Canada. Dr. Stokes told of the Canadian form of government, its two-party political system and its branch banking system in which the main source of income for the banks are from American capital.

President Faber appointed LeRoy Smith to represent the club at the Elks' Flag Day Committee and a letter was read offering the Lions of Gettysburg Country Club facilities at reduced rates for a club outing some day this summer.

The Lions will not meet next Monday but will gather at the Shelter House again on June 9. President Faber said. Meetings were held after the club session by the board of directors and the local delegates to the state Lions' convention.

CATTLE—Despite heavy rains over the week end that resulted in flash floods and bad road conditions fresh cattle receipts estimated at 1,100 head to mark the largest Monday supply in four weeks. Supply figured seven per cent larger than last Monday's count and was 25 per cent larger than the movement a year ago. Approximately 200 head were on sale that were held from last week in addition to the fresh arrivals.

Total saleable supply included the equivalent of eight loads of slaughter steers, a load of heifers and 21 loads of stock cattle. Balance of receipts made up of cows and bulls with cows most numerous.

Full complement of buyers was present but the general sentiment was for lower prices and trading slow throughout the session. However, most cattle carried noticeably increased waterline compared with last last week and these tended to offset some of the paper losses. Slaughter steers unevenly steady to 50c lower. Run was made up largely of mixed good and choice lots of fed offerings over 1,000 pounds. Bulk of good choice steers $32-35, but some dropped to $32.75. An odd lot or so of steers including a few commercial ranged down to $31.50.

Heifers likewise moved slowly and generally followed the steer trend. A part load of good and choice 720 pounds, $32-35, as well as their department. Odd head lots of good heifers, $31-32.25 and the supply of odd lots and single head shipments of utility and commercial, $24-30.

Dealings on cows uneven. A limited number in early rounds fully steady with last Thursday but the later trade was weak to 50c, and in spots more than 50c lower. Lightweight dairy bred canner and cutter grade cows hardest to move and generally showed the full decline. Odd head good young Hereford cows on the heifer order, $25.50-30, but most of the commercial grade cows for beef use, $25-28 with late sales around $27.50 down. Utility cows, $25-28 and canner and cutter grade cows, $18-22.50. Odd head strongweight cutters in opening rounds climbed to $23 and shelly lightweight canners were noted down to $14 or below.

Bulls met a moderately active trade and showed little price change. Commercial grade sausage bulls turned most at $26-28.75. Bulk of the utility bulls, $24-25.50. A few lightweight canner and cutter grade dairy bred sausage bulls moved at $21-23.

Some inquiry was noted for stock cattle but by and large trading was rather desultory with most buyers resisting current asking prices. Sales were made however, reflecting a mostly steady balance compared with last Thursday. A small lot of mostly choice 454 pounds calves, some $26, and odd head, $25-28, but most of the supply consisted of medium and good offerings, $20-25. Package of common and medium, $24.

CALVES—Calf receipts estimated at 350 head marked an increase of 16 per cent over the number offered a week ago and figured 27 per cent larger than the saleable supply counted in during the corresponding period in 1952. Odd town buyers supplied most of the early activity as local interests worked slowly and in some cases disinterestedly. Prices for the most part steady with last Thursday. Mixed lots of good to prime yearlings and light slaughter calves $33-35, latter price top. Utility and good offerings, $21-22, and odd culls dropped to $16 and sometimes below.

HOGS—Another very slow trade was recorded in the hog department where fresh receipts estimated at 1,900 figured 20 per cent larger than last Monday's run and 68 per cent larger than the supply counted in during the same period a year ago. Trading unevenly 25c-75c, lower compared with last Thursday. Sows generally 25c lower. No comparison could be made compared with last Friday due to the fact not enough hogs were on sale last Friday to permit an accurate comparison of prices. Bulk of supply of choice 170-230 pounds barrows and gilts, $21.75-22.25, with odd lots around $22-22.25, most numerous. Scattered odd lots of closely sorted, mostly No. 1 and 2 offerings, to city butchers, $22.50, extreme top. Most of 240-260 pounds, $21.50-21.75; 260-300 pounds, $20.50-21.00; heavierweights from $20, depending on weight and condition. Slaughter pigs, 120-140 pounds, $19-19.75; 140-160 pounds, $20-21.25. Choice sows less than 400 pounds, $16.75-17.75; odd head higher; 400-450 pounds, $15.75-16.75; over 450 pounds, from $15.75 according to weight and condition. Stags discounted, $2-3, top lot most good 35-47 pounds feeding lambs, $28.

SHEEP—Marketings in the sheep department failed to follow the trend in other sections and the run figured at 100 head fell 20 per cent short of the volume received last Monday and was 65 per cent less than the number sold a year ago. Receipts consisted mainly of spring lambs, but included a few odd lots of ewes. Sales steady and the small number moved to an early clearance. Good to prime 62-87 pounds spring lambs, $31-33, top, $33; a few odd lots utility and 22-25, and choice shorn ewes. No. 2 pelts and fresh shorn, around 125 pounds, $21.50-24. One top lot good 35-47 pounds feeding lambs, $28.

2 DELEGATIONS FROM TEXAS BY MAJOR PARTIES

By The Associated Press
Texas Republicans and Democrats alike seemed bent today on having two sets of delegates each to the presidential-nominating conventions.

In each camp—Republicans at Mineral Wells, Democrats at San Antonio—state conventions were split in two.

Backers of Gen. Dwight Eisenhower and Sen. Robert Taft of Ohio were at loggerheads in Mineral Wells, where 38 delegates will be chosen. The San Antonio convention, to pick 52 Democratic delegates, was cleft along pro-Truman lines.

Threaten Walkout
Jack Porter of Houston, Eisenhower leader in Texas, scheduled a rally today. He announced last night that, unless delegates favorable to the general are seated at the state convention, Eisenhower forces will walk out and name their own national convention delegates.

Porter's walkout threat came after the convention executive committee seated 310 of 519 disputed delegates. This, plus Taft claims to other delegates, gave the Ohioan a majority of the 1,062 total.

Bucking Porter and apparently in control was Henry Zwielf, Texas GOP national committeeman and Taft booster. He hailed developments yesterday as "repudiation of mob rule."

Pattern Similar
The pattern was the same in almost every one of the 31 contested delegations. Eisenhower people claimed they won county tests only to have Taft forces bolt when outvoted. Taft backers said Eisenhower boosters were Democrats and not legally Republicans because they had not voted Republican before.

Gov. Allan Shivers, leader of the anti-Truman Democrats, held the reins at San Antonio. He favors an unopposed delegation to the national convention.

Opposing Shivers' group is one favoring the administration, headed by Fagan Dickson, who has rented a hall for the expected walkout.

2nd Florida Primary
Due east of Texas, it was a different story. A half-million turnout was expected for Florida's second presidential primary of the year—today's big prize being its 24-vote Democratic delegation.

In Missouri it was all over but the ultimate balloting. A Jefferson City Democratic convention yesterday put together a 23-vote unopposed delegation to the July 21 convention at Chicago.

The delegation, which includes President Truman, was chary of expressing a preference. Truman expects to go to the convention after the ticket is chosen—a proxy will cast his half-vote—but it was obvious the delegation was awaiting a sign from him.

Other Conventions
Two other state conventions were on today's calendar—Kentucky Democrats with 26 votes and Connecticut Republicans with 22.

And the campaign wheels were spinning furiously in California, where 70 GOP and 68 Democratic delegates will be elected in a primary a week from today.

Florida voters faced a scrambled list of 84 candidates for the 24 delegate spots. Of the 84, Sen. Richard Russell had 41, Sen. Estes Kefauver had 26, with 15 pledged. The two others were committed to Republicans—Eisenhower and Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Russell defeated Kefauver three weeks ago in Florida's presidential preference poll. The Georgian outdistanced the Tennesseean by 82,600 votes, getting 54.5 per cent of the total cast.

In Connecticut it was Taft-vs-Eisenhower, too.
Barring a long-shot upset, the state convention at Hartford was prepared to put all 22 of its votes behind Eisenhower. Taft people played for that long shot, arguing

GEN. RIDGWAY REACHES PARIS ON NATO TASK

PARIS (AP)—Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway returned to Europe today to take command of NATO fighting forces and declared his experience in Korea convinced him a sound defense against Communism here could be built from a combination of many nations.

Then, accompanied by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower whom he is to succeed three days hence, he drove through the streets of Paris in contempt of Communist threats to stage hostile demonstrations against "le general microbe" as they call him. The Communists have applied the tag as part of their propaganda, repeatedly denied by the West, that the United Nations used germ warfare in Korea.

Ridgway stepped out of his plane at Orly Field just 10 days short of eight years after he parachuted into Normandy on D-day.

"Ike" Was There
Gen. Eisenhower was at the airport to greet the man who will relieve him as supreme commander of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization forces on Friday. Also there were several other officials, including French Defense Minister Rene Pleven, U. S. Ambassador James C. Dunn and many officers from SHAPE, the Eisenhower headquarters.

The field was almost black with French police determined to snuff out any Communist demonstration. Twenty thousand other police were massed along the route of the parade through Paris, a route deliberately chosen in preference to a shorter circuit direct to SHAPE.

Mrs. Ridgway stepped out of the plane with her husband. An aide followed them, carrying Matt, four-year-old son of the general. The child clasped a brown and tan stuffed dog.

Talks To Press
Ridgway was greeted at the foot of the ramp by Eisenhower and Pleven. In the air terminal he was they should get some votes because they say half the state's popular sentiment is for Taft.

introduced by Pleven to waiting newspapermen.

"I have utmost confidence in the leadership of Gen. Eisenhower and I expect to learn about the problems first hand as he sees them," Ridgway told the news conference. "If I am able to add anything to what he has done I shall be pleased indeed."

Asked if he expected any military action from the Russians, he replied, "Anything which is a capability is always a possibility. There is great capability there. I would not want to go any farther."

ASBURY PARK (AP)—The president of the New Jersey Resort Association has been authorized to appoint a committee that will campaign for support of a Garden State parkway bond issue.

The bond issue for the parkway, which will run from Passaic to Cape May Counties, comes up for referendum in the November elections.

SENATE DEBATE RENEWED TODAY ON FOREIGN AID

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate continued debate today on the $6,900,000,000 Foreign Aid Bill after a sharply worded plea from President Truman asking Congress not to play politics with world peace by slashing the total.

The President last night said the House in cutting his $7,900,000,000 request by $1,737,000,000 "picked the two places in the world where the danger is greatest, where the Communist threat is strongest"—Europe and Asia.

See Close Results
Expressing hope that the Senate would restore the money, he said the House action opens the way to Communist subversion in countries of Asia.

There was little prospect of the Senate voting on proposed additional cuts in the $6,900,000,000 total until tomorrow or Thursday.

Pending is an amendment sponsored by Sen. Welker (R-Idaho) and 10 of his GOP colleagues to slide another one billion dollars from the measure—one of the key bills of the 1952 session.

Backers of the measure are confident they can beat down this proposal.

But Welker has another one which would knock off half a billion dollars and Sen. Long (D-La.) has filed an amendment to cut the authorization 400 millions. The votes on these may be so close that the absentees could decide the outcome.

TRUMAN LASHES AT HOUSE CUT

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman has accused budget slashers in the House of doing "their bit to help the Communist side."

The President declared in a speech last night that cuts in defense spending were "a foolish, reckless act" which may force a sharp reduction in U. S. armed forces in an hour of peril.

He expressed hope that Vice President Barkley will be able to persuade the Senate to restore House cuts in both the defense and foreign aid programs.

The President chose a dinner last night commemorating the completion of a colony in Israel named for him—Kfar Truman—for a bitter assault on the House. It reduced his defense recommendations from around 51 billion dollars to 46 billion and the mutual security program from $7,900,000,000 to $6,174,600,000.

The President said of the House cut in armed services funds: "This was a foolish, reckless act. It jeopardizes our defense buildup. It may require us—in this hour of peril—to demobilize a substantial part of our armed forces. Think of that."

DELAY DECISION ON PENNA. STAND AT CONVENTION

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Pennsylvania's Republican national convention delegation still was delaying today any decision on how the state's 70 votes will be counted for the presidential nomination.

These factors emerged clearcut from the week-end sessions here of the GOP State Committee, and the first caucus of the delegates:

(1) Both Gen. Dwight E. Eisenhower and Sen. Robert A. Taft have a core of solid support within the delegation. Backers of each claim their candidate has more votes than his rival, and so far are some of the opinions on both sides that it appears unlikely the entire 70 votes can be won for either candidate in a genuine convention contest.

Fine's Position Unknown

(2) The position of Gov. John S. Fine is the biggest single unknown factor within the delegation. The state's chief executive said again, in one of his most forceful speeches, that his decision has not yet been made. Backers of both Taft and Eisenhower say they are confident the governor eventually will line up with their man, but none could be found claiming a commitment from Fine.

(3) Meanwhile, a campaign of watchful waiting seems to be immediately ahead, with leaders of both factions continuing to drive for additional voting support within the delegation, either by convincing some of the presently undecided delegates or by wooing away votes now listed tentatively in support of their favorite's rival.

State Chairman M. Harvey Taylor, reelected to a sixth successive term at the head of the state committee, warned of some danger in this situation. He cautioned that all Republicans should "work for your favorite, but don't do it by trying to destroy some other good Republican."

Senators Divided

This angle was stressed also by Fine, and by the state's two Republican senators now on opposite sides—but on good terms—in the presidential tussle.

Fine said in his speech to the state committee that the Eisenhower-Taft contest should be settled before the convention opens in Chicago July 7 "or it may defeat the party before we leave there." He said the decision of the party—and his own—must be made "on issues and not on candidates."

Many in the audience of 500 took the view that by implication the governor was looking forward to his scheduled meeting with Gen. Eisenhower shortly after the NATO commander returns to this country early next month. The governor has said that he needs to determine Eisenhower's views on the issues of the campaign.

Martin, Duff Speak

Sen. Martin called for a united effort to drive out of Washington the Democratic administration that has been marked by "chaos, confusion, corruption and communism." Martin is regarded as being favorable to Taft's candidacy.

And Duff, a national leader in the Eisenhower campaign, demanded a common effort to oust "the most entrenched political machine in history." He termed the 1952 election "the last call to dinner" for the party which has lost five successive presidential contests.

Generally described as "harmonious," the state committee meeting and delegate caucus were notable for the fact that neither side of the controversy within the party appeared willing to raise any issue that could be read as a test of strength. There was not a single contest as both groups unanimously chose the slated sets of officers and the delegate caucus didn't even hear so much as a mention of the names of the presidential candidates.

Gov. Fine, as expected, was chosen chairman of the delegation. Other officers named were: Mrs. Gaynelle Dixon, Butler, vice chairman; S. S. Lewis, York, secretary; G. Mason Owlett and Mrs. Kathryn Murdoch, Greensburg, as national committee members.

These nominations for national convention posts: Credentials committee, Judge Thomas M. Lewis, of Wilkes-Barre; Resolutions, Judge Lois M. McBride, Pittsburgh, and Atty. Gen. Robert Woodside, Harrisburg; rules and order, Cornelius Deegan, Philadelphia, and honorary vice-chairman of the convention, Joseph N. Pew Jr., Norristown.

Only one change was made in state committee officers. Reelected in addition to Taylor were: Mrs. Sara G. Leffler, Lebanon, vice chairman; Mrs. Isabella J. Jones, Pittsburgh, secretary; Mrs. Gwendolyn MacCartney, Uniontown, assistant secretary. William J. Hamilton Jr., New Philadelphia city chairman, was named treasurer succeeding William Morrow whom he defeated for the chairmanship last week.

AVOIDING CABBAGE YELLOWS

Cabbage yellows, sometimes called cabbage wilt, is a fungous disease that lives in soils where infected plants have grown or into which organisms have been introduced on tillage implements, by running water or other direct carriers. To date no successful method of control has been discovered except to grow one or more of the several resistant varieties of cabbage now available. This course is strongly stressed in all cases where yellows is known to be present in the soil.

This disease may also prove destructive to kale, collards, and kohlrabi but seldom attacks cauliflower, broccoli and Brussels sprouts. Apparently turnips, rutabagas and other related crucifer vegetables are resistant.

In most cases yellows symptoms are seen in two to four weeks after plants have been transplanted. A lifeless, pale yellowishness is seen in the leaves, sometimes uniform over the entire leaf surface but more often worse on one side of the midrib than on the other, thereby causing a lateral warping or curling effect. If such a leaf stem is cut across, a darker ring is visible, with the color darkening as the disease progresses. Affected plants shed their lower or older leaves. In extreme cases death may result in two or three weeks or the plants may struggle through the summer, either failing to head or developing a useless lop-sided head.

How long the causative fungus survives after it is introduced into bed or growing soils is not known. But evidence points to the likelihood that the organisms may live indefinitely even though no members of the crucifer group occupy the soil for many years.

Experience shows the infection seldom occurs at temperatures below 60 degrees F. Too, because of this trait, the disease is usually more severe in warm, dry summers than in cool, moist seasons.

Long and careful rotations aid somewhat in reducing cabbage yellows but certainly will not serve as a reliable safeguard against the disease. As already mentioned, the only sound course for gardeners to pursue in neighborhoods where yellows is known to be prevalent and particularly where it has already appeared in gardens is to grow one or more of the resistant varieties.

There are few dangers that the disease is transmitted by insects because the organisms must enter into the plant's structure through the feeder roots. However, many cases have been traced to introduction of the fungi on plows and other tillage implements and especially by water draining from infected soils onto areas not previously infected.

Of course, spraying and similar direct methods of combat are useless in warfare on yellows.

Among the several excellent varieties of cabbage resistant to yellows are Jersey Queen, Resistant Detroit, Marion Market, Globe, Wisconsin Ballhead, All Head Select, Wisconsin All-Seasons, and Red Highlander. Too much emphasis cannot be placed on growing one of these or other resistant strains after yellows invades the garden or truck field.

CURBING CHICK CANNIBALISM

Cannibalism is an abnormal condition among chicks in which they actually eat the flesh of each other. Usually only a few are victims at the outbreak, but the vicious practice may spread until more than half the flock members are injured and many die from the attacks. What causes cannibalism among chicks? How may outbreaks be prevented? What can be done to check the trouble after the practice starts.

Most poultrymen include within the term of cannibalism such habits as feather picking, toe picking and pecking at the combs and other exposed parts of the body by which blood is drawn. Usually after blood is tasted the perpetrators increase their violence and in most cases the vents of the victims are eaten into open wounds.

Cannibalism results from one or more of three main causes: (1) Crowding; (2) Idleness; and (3) Improper feed. Occasionally itching-causing mites irritates chicks at the feather base and may lead to feather picking and the associated train of evils.

Plenty of room not only helps to reduce dangers of cannibalism but at the same time brings other benefits to chicks in terms of health and general well being. As soon as chicks can live beyond the range of the brooder stove, furnish them all the room they require for comfort and freedom of action.

Idleness appears toirk the curious chick. With nothing to occupy its time, a chick soon begins to peck at the grain-like toes of its neighbor. Or the first violation of proper chick manners may be an occasional peck at its sister's or brother's comb or other exposed part of the body. This usually explains feather picking. Chicks that are kept busy seldom develop toe, comb or feather picking habits. One of the better way to give chicks "something to do" is to offer them daily a supply of tender green feed furnished in woven wire containers suspended along the wall so the birds will have to jump a little to reach the tasty material. Clover or young clippings, tender grass, lettuce leaves, celery tops, green cabbage leaves or other similar vegetation will serve. And while this occupation reduces cannibalistic dangers the chicks are enjoying feed they actually need to round out a sound diet.

Deficient feeds may induce cannibalism through a shortage of animal matter in the ration. The chick mash should contain bone meal, fish meal, meat scrap, tankage or other form of animal matter to satisfy the natural hunger of the birds for "meat." Often no other remedial measure is necessary to prevent or stop the habit. But usually it is too late to add animal matter after chicks gain the taste of fresh blood in their attacks on each other. At its best, animal matter in the mash is a sound preventive.

When the practice is actually started the addition of salt to the mash for two or three days (no longer) will usually end the trouble. In many cases the practice stops within a few hours after 2 per cent of salt is added to the all-mash diet or 4 percent where a mash-and-grain ration is fed. Under no circumstances should the increase of salt be continued beyond three days. Too, never increase the salt of chick feed to prevent cannibalism.

If the practice continues after the salt treatment, either darken the room a few days or trim short the beaks of the chief offenders.

The next explosion, on a date to be announced, will involve 1,500 service troops from Camp Desert Rock near the test site.
